WHO I AM. Married to Holly (16 yrs.), and proud father to our daughter, now 14. A considerate but candid leader, I am as happy fishing, shooting baskets, or watching football as I am hiding in a corner reading some obscure theological tome. I am blessed with a healthy sense of humor and am relentlessly ready to laugh, especially with a good (cheap!) cup of coffee in my hands.

TESTIMONY & CALLING. Into early adulthood I struggled with an overwhelming, crippling conviction of sin, until, by God's grace, I understood and trusted that Jesus was crucified for me, was raised for my justification, and that he saves whoever calls upon his name. Initially, I tried to put off the call to preach, having already invested so much in academic life. Since 2010, however, Christ's call to serve him has become foremost of every life-goal, and I am fully devoted to pastoral ministry, seeking in the power of the Spirit to exercise my spiritual gifts of preaching, mercy, and encouragement.

BASIC MINISTRY PHILOSOPHY. In its weekly assembly the local church exalts Jesus in his Person and his saving work, comforts the elect and exhorts them to good works, urges the lost to repentance and faith in Jesus, and teaches new believers to observe all of his commands. In its outward community, the church exalts Jesus by loving one another, proclaiming the gospel, making disciples, and caring for the destitute. Whether gathered around God's Word or on-mission together, the local church makes all of its life a fruitful act of worship to the glory of Jesus.

Greetings in the Lord Jesus Christ.

I am an ordained Southern Baptist minister seeking a gospel-centered church in which to labor alongside God's people as Lead Pastor/Elder.

With my family, a member in good standing at Parkway Baptist Church in McKinney, TX, serving there until recently as interim Worship Pastor while studying for the Master of Divinity at The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary (anticipated graduation, 2019).

A kind but candid native Texan, married to Holly for 16 great years, and proud father to our daughter, now 14. Besides reading, writing, fishing, and shooting baskets, taking special pleasure in talking up God's gospel with people, and discipling young men to walk with the Lord according to his Word.

Previous ministry assignments including associate pastor, house-church elder, youth director, worship leader, and summer missionary; since 2010, preaching 15-20 times a year, planning/leading worship, organizing prospect visitation and evangelism, managing budgets, and performing various administrative duties.

Preaching biblical, expository messages while practicing gospel community through open hospitality.
